back in Jammu by petitioner got here admitted in Government Medical College, Jammu. On 28th of July, 2015 after duty hour he requested to Shri Inderjeet Singh, M. T. Vehicle for 5 days leave w. e. f. 29-07-2015. Being the male member of family he was supposed to attend the mother. The doctor postponed the operation two times as the mother of the petitioner was old and finally the operation was done on 11-08-2015. On 07-08-2015 he went to office and submitted the leave application written by Nek Ram which was further submitted to the Manager. On 17-08-2015 as requested, he was deputed to local duty. Thereafter with the permission of Nek Ram, he left for hospital. On 18-08-2015 he was on duty and was deliberately with mala fide intention directed to go on long route duty even the other drivers agreed to adjust him in local duty. It further appears that Manager informed him in office and asked to wait for some days and on 31-08-2015 called and told that head office refused to take the petitioner on duty as such the service of petitioner has been terminated. It also reflects that petitioner filed the dispute before conciliation officer where it was not settled amicably. It reflects that petitioner was terminated without any notice or one month pay and without compensation. The statement deposed by petitioner has been corroborated by the P. W. Inderjeet Singh who deposed that he is working in the company of respondent. Som Nath respondent on 28th July, 2015 requested him for 5 days casual leave as his mother fell down in village which was to be taken back at Jammu. He being MT Incharge allowed for 5 days C. L. Mother of petitioner remained admitted in hospital from 29-07-2015.

From the perusal of annexure A/I, the copy of discharge and follow up card, it reflects that Krishana Devi, age 75 years remained admitted in hospital, Government Medical College from 29-07-2015 to 18-08-2015.

Even from the perusal of objection filed by respondent, it does not appear that before terminating the service of petitioner, respondent have conducted any enquiry though it appears from the objection that petitioner remained absent unauthorized as such he was terminated by Branch Manager.
There is no record with objection which shows that before termination of petitioner the respondent issued show cause notice to respondent for explanation.
